Break's Over, Back to Work!

After almost a whole month off it is time for the Rotary Club of San Carlos to get back to work. Usually during the summer the club gets a little lackadaisical and puts everything on the back burner until the fall. Well this year is going to be different. The Community Service committee led by Board Director Steve Eldridge has signed the club up for two Second Harvest Food Bank volunteer nights. The nights are July 24th and August 21st. Volunteers are asked to show up around 6:15pm and will usually be let go by 8:30pm. This is a great way for our club to stay involved through the slow summer months.

Following our lead the Carlmont Interact Club is also committing to community service over the summer. On Saturday July 27th they will be participating in a park cleanup in the Bayview District of San Francisco. The event will take place from 9am-12pm at Youngblood Coleman Playground in San Francisco. We need Rotary volunteers for this event to act as chaperones.

If you are interested in participating in any of the events please contact Steve Eldridge or Andy Klein. Let's all work to make this summer a productive summer.

Action on the Bay - The Best Way to Watch It

Ryann Greenberg is responsible for the development and operational management of ticketed spectator experiences for the 34th America's Cup. Prior to this she managed all private and public non-baseball events for the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The San Francisco America's Cup

The 34th America's cup brings a Summer of Racing to the SF Bay Area from July 4 - September 21. For the first time in Cup history, spectators will be able to view the racing up close from a variety of shoreline and on-water locations. The benefits of hosting this event will live on long after the races end through a variety of legacy and community benefits and will forever be remembered as the San Francisco America's Cup.

LAST WEEK IN BAY AREA SPORTS

MLB:

SF Giants

The Giants (43-51) have begun to pull out of their funk after getting swept by the Mets they took three of four off the Padres.

More important than that Tim "The Freak" Lincecum threw the first no-hitter in the history of Petco Park, it was also the first no-hitter in Lincecum's career.

Oakland A's

The A's (56-39) continue their winning ways by taking two of three off of the Boston Red Sox. The A's currently sit on a two game lead in the AL West.
