INTERACT CLUB VOLUNTEERS SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANK

Rotarians At van den Hout, Bob Watkins, Chris Davis, Mark Schiavenza, Katrina Calinisan & Andy Klein volunteer at the Second Harvest Food Bank with the Carlmont Interact Club.

THIS WEEK AND COMING UP FOR ROTARY

On Wednesday the Carlmont Interact Club volunteered at the Second Harvest Food Bank. They were joined by Rotarians At van den Hout, Bob Watkins, Chris Davis, Mark Schiavenza, Katrina Calinisan & Andy Klein. The Rotarians and Carlmont Interact members had a great time volunteering and getting to know one another. The Interact club also launched their new website: <http://www.carlmountinteract.com/> Check it out! There was also a "Rotarian in the wild" spotting. Rotarian Chris Edwards was spotted volunteering as a Team Leader at the Food Bank as well.

There have been some changes to the format of the Finemaster Tournament. One of the competitors in the Elite Eight has dropped out of the competition resulting in a change to the bracket. John Watkins will get an automatic spot in the final four, congratulations John, and we will have a bye this week. Next week Jonathan Nicolas will continue the tournament, he is currently competing against Christine Boland, and the winner of that match-up will join John Watkins, Andy Klein and At van den Hout in the Final Four.

This week's program is the Redwood City Fire Department. Recently the San Carlos City Council voted to join the Redwood City Fire Department. This move disbanded the shortly lived San Carlos Fire Department and handed over control over our fire service to Redwood City. Fire Chief Jim Skinner and Deputy Chief Stan Maupin will be presenting to the club why this was a good for our community and what we can expect in the future.
