Last Week @ Rotary

Lunch at Piacere's last week was...an event! Our speaker for the day; Paul Kingsman, was awesome. I think we were all riveted as Paul took us through his 13-year journey to compete in the 1988 Summer Olympics. Striving for his goal of swimming the 200 meter backstroke in two minutes and earning the bronze medal by four one-hundredth's of a second was inspiring. My tablemate Phil was so caught up in the moment as to volunteer to model the Speedo swimsuit which Paul was clutching as a presentation prop {no!}. Prior to that, President-Elect Andy broke the news to the club [hold on guys!] that Lucas has finally gone on bended knee and proposed to Katrina. Congratulations Katrina! Barely recovering, we all watched attentively as President Betsy fished around in the Marble bag for the winning stone. With only two rocks left, we were...sad... that she left the money in the bag for the drawing this Friday. The lucky ticket takes home the dough. As always Ted will be doing a brisk biz converting cash into mostly worthless chaff*.

The finals have been set. After six months of competition the Finemaster Tournament will come down to At van den Hout vs. John Watkins. No one could have predicted this match up in May, but At & John have risen to the top and will battle head to head for the right to be referred to as Champion. The final will take place on November 22nd. Who knows what the two of them have in store for us.
